Re: National Union v. NVIDIA Corporation, Case No. 09-2046 CW

Dear Judge Zimmerman:

On June 10, 2010, this Court issued an Order instructing NVIDIA to complete its document production by the end of the month if the parties were not able to get an extension from Judge Wilken of her October 27, 2009 Case Management Order. The Order also instructed National Union Fire Insurance Company of Pittsburgh, PA ("National Union") to resolve any document production issues with third parties by the end of June, or file an appropriate motion. (See Doc. #136.) On June 16, 2010, the parties submitted a Stipulated Request for Order Changing Time pursuant to Civil Local Rule 6-2. (See Doc. #137.) Specifically, the parties requested an extension from September 10, 2010 to March 10, 2011 for the completion of fact discovery. On June 18, 2010, Judge Wilken issued the attached order granting the request. (See Doc. #139.)

Given the extension of the discovery period, the parties have agreed to continue to discuss the timing and manner of completing NVIDIA's document production. The parties will continue to meet and confer as needed to discuss any issues, and do not believe that the Court's intervention is required at this point. Therefore, while NVIDIA will endeavor to complete its production as quickly as possible, NVIDIA requests that it be excused from the requirement that it complete its voluminous production by the end of June.

Additionally, both prior to and following the issuance of Judge Wilken's Order, William J. Goines, counsel for National Union, has engaged in conversations with counsel for the third parties who have been served with subpoenas (Apple, Dell, Hewlett-Packard, and Toshiba) and is continuing to meet and confer with them in regard to the scope of the subpoenas and for the production of responsive documents. Given the extension of the time period to complete fact discovery and that the meet and confer and production process is ongoing, National Union requests that it be excused from the requirement that it file any motions with respect to these third parties by the end of June. With the Court's permission, any motions, if necessary, would be filed no later than September 1, 2010.

Very truly yours,
